What People Are Saying About Chase Given

"Chase was hired for LLU's Pediatric Residency Christmas Party 2013. In the past, our Christmas Parties have ended up being short events, with a dinner, a few awards and presentations, and then all of our tired, often stressed doctors slip away quickly. With Chase, this was the absolute opposite case. After the awards, Chase performed, and I could quickly see the worries and stress of the guests quickly melted away with Chase's performance. Chase's choice in music, professional performance, and incredible lighting provided such a high level of entertainment, that almost every guest stayed until his last note. He is already booked for 2014, and we couldn't be more excited!"

"There all all kinds of satisfaction in this life. Some are easily reached and obtained and others are more difficult or next to impossible. Music has always been a great source of satisfaction to me. Chase Given and his artistry have provided to me and many many others that satisfaction over the years. Chase always plays and or sings a song and makes everyone really feel good about it."

"My wife Susan and I hired Chase to perform at our wedding reception on New Years Eve 2010. My family is from New Jersey and Susan's is from Chicago. Chase truly bent over backwards to entertain each and every guest. He was even willing to learn a Polka for Susan's mother, and nailed it! His level of professionalism and entertainment value are truly second to none. I would recommend him to anyone and everyone and will be a life-long fan."

Dr. David Bucci, PHD - Greenville, NC

"For over a year, Chase has performed each Thursday at Sharky's. With Chase's consistently great performances, we have seen our attendance on Thursday evenings increase by over 20%. Chase understands how to make an audience happy, and has a tremendous repertoire so that each show is different, and he has such a strong eye for what will make each audience happy, that he quickly can move from "Brown Eyed Girl", to "Easy Like Sunday Morning" and then "The Way You Look Tonight" seamlessly, and sounds amazing on each song that he sings. Chase is humble, flexible, and personable, which are three of the greatest qualities I could ask for as a business owner working with entertainers, and he truly provides top shelf entertainment."

"Chase has performed on Wednesday Nights at my fine dining establishment. I have even referred many of my wedding catering clients to Chase for their entertainment needs. Chase blends a great mixture of standards, classic pop tunes, and love songs that brings in regulars every single week. He plays at such a nice volume, that every patron that walks in the door, from teenagers to our mature guests always enjoy his music, and have never ever commented negatively about the volume. He is a true professional and we are proud to have him performing at our restaurant."

"I've known Chase Given, since he was a little kid...really. I've watched him progress and grow up from being a cute novelty with lots of potential into what he is today--a skilled, highly polished, professional act. As a performer, I've had the pleasure of having Chase, join my band on stage from time to time. I've also booked Chase's band as well as duo/solo acts comprised of its members and have never gotten anything less than a stellar report. Chase Given is a great choice for any setting; wedding, festival, club, corporate. With his showmanship and the wide range of genres he covers, he can engage any audience. You can't go wrong with Chase Given!"
